

Pablo Picasso

A Picasso inspired lesson idea, designed to show students that everybody can draw

Material:

Paper
Charcoal
Soft Pastels
Mirror

Lesson Plan

1. Show your students some portraits painted by Picasso
2. Talk about that he painted as he saw a person, and it doesn't matter where the eyes are or the nose.
3. Talk about that he used vibrant colours, even if they weren't colours you'd find in real faces
4. Let them have a look in a mirror
5. Every student takes a black charcoal and draws their face on a piece of paper
6. In the next step they colour their own portrait
7. Let the students show their classmates and and talk about
